

Approval of Topics Courses

Semester:

Department:

Topics Courses – These are courses whose title usually begins “Topics in ...”; as in, BUS 469 Topics in Marketing, ECO 400 Topics in Econometrics, ENG 350 Topics in British Literature. The framework of these courses has been approved by the Curriculum Committee and the Faculty Assembly.

Special Topics Courses – These are courses that have the course code DDD L97. This a catch-all code for courses that do not fall within any other Topics category in the catalog.

General Education Special Topics Courses – These are courses that have the course code DDD L96. This code designates special topics courses that carry general education credit.

Table with 6 columns: CODE, COURSE TITLE, PROFESSOR, TYPE, GEN. ED. CREDIT, WIC CREDIT. The table is currently empty.

I confirm that:

- (a) The syllabi for these courses have been approved by me as department chair;
(b) This is the first or second time the special topics or general education special topics courses have been offered;
(c) If the course is a topics course and carries general education credit and/or WIC credit, the course has been approved by the Curriculum Committee;
(d) If the course is a general education special topics course, the course has been approved by the Curriculum Committee and the Faculty Assembly.
