YOUR APPLICATION

Your application must include the following documents:

- A complete and accurate application form.
- An application letter explaining how you meet the requirements for this position.
- A complete and accurate curriculum vitae that includes a list of courses previously taught and publications.

The search committee may request further documents from short-listed candidates.

DECLARATION

- I confirm that the information that I have given in this application for employment and any supporting documents is complete and accurate.
- I understand that failure to disclose any relevant information or the provision of false information may lead to dismissal / withdrawal of any offer of employment made to me.
- I understand that the University may check all or any of the information provided by me as part of my application or given in references.
- I understand that an appointment, if offered, will be subject to the outcome of any relevant pre-employment checks, which the University regards as satisfactory.
